

Business Ethics

Our set of non-situational principles that guide acceptable behavior within our organization. These non-negotiable values include:

- Personal integrity
- Respect for laws and policies
- Fulfillment of our commitments
- Contributing to a business environment that promotes trust and fairness
- Putting the best interest of others (customers, team, organization) before our own